Setting Up a Noodletools Account

This is the first step in preparing for our end of the year research project. Noodletools allows you to collect and properly cite your research. This guide will walk you through how to set up a Noodletools account and share it with me.

Creating a Noodletools Account and Project

1. Log into Blackboard
2. Click on T.C. Williams then Library King Street
3. Click on the Noodletools icon
4. Click Create a Personal ID (if you already have one, login and skip to step 11)
5. Choose the first option: An account linked to a school/library subscription or trial and click register
6. Enter the following username and password:
   a. Username- TCWHS
   b. Password- titans
7. Enter your information using your laptop login and password and click register
8. Once in Noodletools, click create a new project
9. Choose MLA and Advanced
10. Call your project English 10 Research Paper (you always want to be specific in your naming because you’ll always have access to these projects)
11. Click Create Project
12. Under Dashboard where it says Sharing click on share project with a teacher’s dropbox
   a. This will allow me to check on your progress and give you credit for your sources
13. In Assignment Dropbox type in MartinENG10 and choose your class block from the drop down menu
14. Then type in YOUR first and last name and click share project
   a. If you are going to be using Googledocs, you can check that box. If not, do not check it.
